"The use of carbonated beverages or waters as an addition to wine or alcoholic liquors is highly commendable, as they greatly mitigate, or wholly obviate the retarding influence of such liquors on the digestion of starch."—Dr. I. Burney Yeo, in Popular Science Monthly. Prof. Charles F. Chandler, chemist to the N. Y. Board of Health; Dr. Julius, Professor of Analytical Chemistry in the American Institute, and many others all speak in the highest terms of the beneficial effects of "SODA WATER" upon the system.

TO EMPEROR OF JAPAN UNCLE SAM CAN CURE

BRILLIANT CONSULAR BALL ON KULE'S BIRTHDAY

MOANA HOTEL ABLAZE WITH LIGHTS, MUSIC, GAY UNIFORMS AND RICH COSTUMES LAST NIGHT.

The ball given at the Moana Hotel last evening by Japanese Consul and Mrs. Saito, celebrating the fifty-second birthday of His Imperial Majesty, the Emperor of Japan, surpassed all former celebrations of the day, which in Honolulu is in the front rank of notable calendar events.

All Honolulu society was there. Federal and Territorial officials and members of the local diplomatic corps were present and all mingling with the first Japanese officials and ladies of the islands combined to do honor to the important occasion and lend social brilliancy to the anniversary ball.

The Moana Hotel is admirably suited in arrangement and elegance of appointment for a royal ball such as it was last night. The broad lawn adjacent to the sea was aglitter with electric lights of every color. The lanais, lobbies and parlors were splendidly decorated with the blended colors of Japan and America in a setting of tropical foliage gathered from palm grove and fernery. The great dining hall was transformed into a state ball room. Over the windows were grouped flags of the two countries. At the head of this room the receiving party stood beneath an arch of flags and palm branches. The receiving party consisted of Consul Saito, the Japanese Vice Consul, Mrs. Saito, Mrs. M. M. Scott, Mrs. Mori, Miss Marion Scott, Miss Ella Stansbury and others. Secretary Atkinson made the presentations. Meanwhile the Hawaiian band on the lawn discoursed excellent music, playing the Japanese national anthem at the beginning of the reception.

When all had been presented, at the proposal of Consul Saito, three cheers were given for the Japanese Emperor and three for the President of the United States.

At the close of the reception the Ellis quintet stationed in the balcony started the dance music and pleasure ran a full tide to a late hour. There were from 300 to 400 dancers on the floor.

There were special cars run between 1 and 2 o'clock a. m. to take the guests to their homes.

British People Ready To Await the Verdict

London, Oct. 29.—Profound satisfaction over the fact that an arrangement has been reached and the entire certainty that the result of the commission of inquiry will be to discredit Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's statements about the presence of torpedo boats among the North Sea fishing fleet marks the comments of London afternoon newspapers almost universally. The admiral's story, it is pointed out, has the great advantage that it is capable of precise proof or disproof.

"The Russian Admiral can only make good his case by producing the vessel whose presence he alleges was among the travelers," says the Westminster Gazette. This feeling that the British contention will be upheld pervades all classes and disposes the public to calmly await the verdict.

Trading on the stock exchange opened buoyantly and prices considerably advanced all around.

The composition of the international commission is the immediate subject of communication passing between St. Petersburg and London. It has been suggested that it shall be comprised of five admirals, French, Russian and English, and two from smaller powers, possibly Denmark and Holland, to be nominated by their respective governments. Nothing yet, however, has definitely been decided. No American member has been suggested, though there might be an opening there for in the proposal that one law jurist from a neutral power shall be included in the commission.

ROOSEVELT SCORES HIM.

Washington, Oct. 28.—By direction of the President, Secretary Loeb today sent to James N. Tyner, the former Assistant Attorney General for the Post-office Department, a letter in reply to Tyner's letter dated October 8 and made public last night. The letter says that the question of Tyner's guilt on the criminal charge on which he was tried has been passed upon by a jury and the President acquiesces in the jury's finding, but the evidence "seems to him overwhelming that you (Tyner) were guilty either of moral obliquity in performance of duty or of the grossest inefficiency."

Chefoo, Oct. 29.—Advices received here from Harbin say that Viceroy Alexieff and his entire staff will leave Harbin tomorrow. They expect to arrive in St. Petersburg November 14. The Russian Consul here says Alexieff's recall is due to the need of his advice in framing new plans for the Manchurian campaign. Other Russians, including one official, confirm the reports from other quarters that Alexieff's recall is permanent and that it is due to Imperial dissatisfaction with his services.

HEALTH SERVICE BRANCH
HERE TO STUDY DISEASE

IF CONGRESS WILL SET ASIDE $50,000 HAWAII AND WORLD WILL BENEFIT—SCIENCE AND HUMANITY.

In addressing Surgeon General Walter Wyman of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, Governor Carter, advocating an appropriation by Congress of fifty thousand dollars for the scientific study of leprosy with a view to discovering a cure for the disease, by no means urges that this amount, or whatever amount Congress may see fit to set aside, be appropriated for the exclusive benefit of the Territory of Hawaii.

It was gathered from a conversation with the Governor this morning that Mr. Carter's idea is that Congress set apart a sufficient sum to enable men of science to carefully study the disease in Hawaii, Porto Rico, the Philippines, or anywhere in the world for that matter, for the purpose of gathering data and getting together the facts of the circumstances of the malady, working to the end of eventually finding a way to cure. The establishment in Hawaii of a bureau, or a branch, or an individual of the Federal Health Service, toward this end, would accomplish much in the cause of science and humanity. This bureau or branch or individual would of course have nothing to say in the management of the settlement of Molokai; research would be the sole object. The Governor does not favor control of the Molokai settlement by the Federal Government but he believes that the establishment here of a branch of the Health Service for the study of the disease would eventually prove a wonderful boon to Hawaii and to the world; he believes that if Uncle Sam once makes up his mind to accomplish things along this line, going thoroughly into the matter, a cure will be discovered.

Tax Appeal Lost By Rapid Transit

Tax Appeal Court yesterday filed two decisions. Assessment of the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co. is increased by $350,000 over that which it wished to compromise for, nearly double the figures of the original return. Appeals of Emily C. Judd were decided in favor of the assessor. Following are the decisions:

Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co. vs. James L. Holt, Tax Assessor. Robertson & Wilder for Assessor; W. R. Castle for appellant. Assessed at $1,409,200. Returned at $682,082.80.

Following the basis outlined by the Supreme Court in its decision in a former appeal by said appellant as shown in 15 Hawaiian, pages 3 and 4, the following is the basis for assessment:

3,000 shares common stock at $22.50 per share	$ 660,000 00
3,300 shares preferred stock at $100 per share	330,000 00
Total	$ 990,000 00
Less 20 per cent.	198,000 00
	$ 792,000 00

$610,000 bonds less 5%

$ 579,500 00

$1,371,500 00

Deducting value of material not in use

27,684 05

Balance $1,343,815 95

The court fixes the amount of assessment as above given at $1,351,015.95.

Emily C. Judd vs. Jas. L. Holt, Tax Assessor. Robertson & Wilder for Assessor; W. H. Baird for appellant. Manoa property: assessed at $42,000, returned at $33,000.

Long Branch property: assessed at $22,500, returned at $17,000. Manoa property. There is no evidence to show any depreciation in the value of said property between 1902 and 1904, and the expert testimony is to the effect that the assessment is a fair one.

The court, therefore, sustains the assessor and fixes the assessment at $42,000.

Long Branch property. There is no evidence to show any depreciation in the value of said property between 1902 and 1904. The expert testimony and voluntary returns for adjoining and adjacent property show the assessment made by the Assessor to be a fair one.

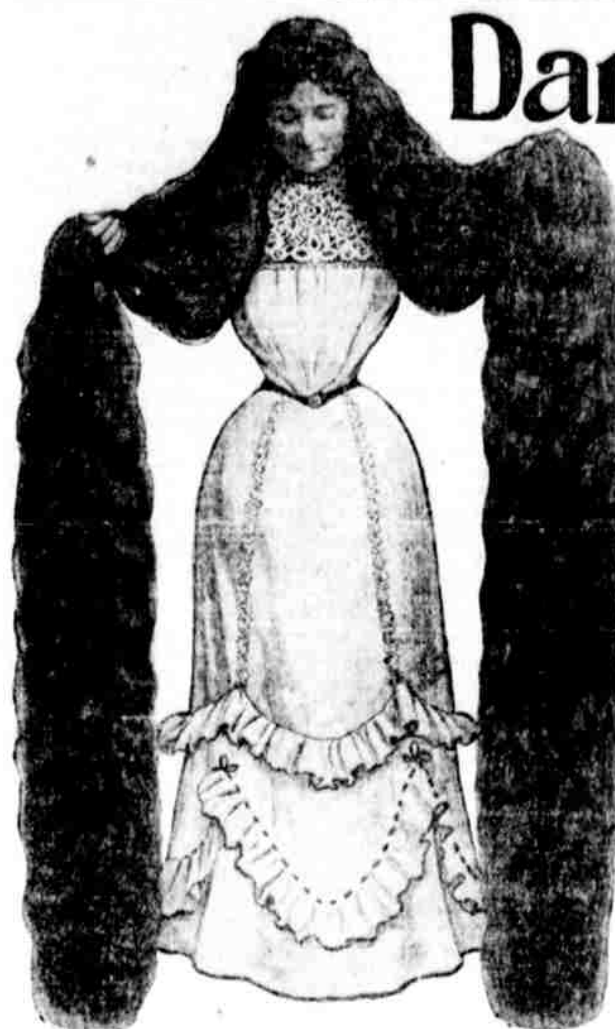

In view of the fact that the Assessor testified that he had fixed the assessment at $20,000 and was satisfied with this amount, the court fixes the assessment on said property at $20,000.

IS ROOSEVELT A HYPOCRITE

Henry Watterson writes for Collier's of October 22 an article on "Theodore Roosevelt: Is He Sincere or Is He a Hypocrite?" in which he says:

Mr. Roosevelt is represented by his penologists on the one hand as the most guileless of men, on the other hand as the most astute. "What would Lincoln have done?" Mr. Hay tells us he constantly asks himself.

We are told that we must make no readings from Mr. Roosevelt's books. Why not? Mainly, the answer comes, because they were the more or less jejune effusions of an immature mind. Yet, do not such effusions throw light upon character? Young men are, as a rule, generous. We seek, nowhere to discover, a gleam of hearty though unthoughtful appreciation in all the writings of Theodore Roosevelt; but everywhere censorious criticism, faulty judgments, superficial history, exultant, self-confident intolerance. He calls Jefferson Davis a second Benedict Arnold, assails him as a Republican, and, offered proof to the contrary, grossly insults an old man tottering on the brink of the grave. Would Lincoln have done this? He dismisses Schley as an impatient schoolmaster might dismiss a pestiferous youngster. Would Lincoln have done this?

Were these things the offspring of impulse or intention? Perhaps a little of both. Character is made up of contradictions. Yet in spite of all that is claimed for him we never see Theodore Roosevelt doing a magnanimous action—saying a charitable, kindly word—on the contrary, and all the time the relentless critic, exacting of others, grudging as to himself, and never for a moment since his advent to the White House losing sight of the main chance.

A model paterfamilias! Why, so is the Kaiser. An upright gentleman? Wherein has he in this an advantage over His Majesty King Edward VII? A brave man? The woods are full of them. We are not choosing a King or a Kaiser, but an American President. Happily, we can choose between two or three, or half a dozen contestants. Why not Tom Watson? Why not Dr. Swallow? Why not Mr. Debs? Each is represented to be a good citizen and a virtuous man. They are, so to say, with the sidehows, as they are called. Mr. Roosevelt is in actual possession of the office. He has been filling it three years. It ought to be easy to see what he is and what he is not. Shall we throw away our glasses out of respect for his dignity? Shall our inspection of wares submitted to us "on approval" be abridged; our refusal to purchase, along with the reasons why, be dismissed as less majestic?

I do not approve Mr. Roosevelt at all, but I entertain no private grievance against him. I not only do not want to do him injury, but I should be glad to be able to regard him with admiration and esteem. I am denied this by a belief in the truth of that which is here written. It rests not upon conjecture; it is a part, though an expert part, of the history of the time. Can there be another side to it?
